20. xcel.es es

Conditions of use for the whois service via port 43 for .es domains

Access will only be enabled for IP addresses authorised by Red.es. A maximum of one IP address per user/organisation is permitted.

The service will be limited to the data established by Red.es.

The user promises to make use of the service and to carry out any action derived from the aforesaid use in accordance with current applicable regulations, in particular with legislation on “.es” domain names and personal data protection.

In particular, the user undertakes not to use the service to carry out abusive or speculative domain name registrations, pursuant to section 5 of the Sixth Additional Provision of Law 34/2002, of 11 July, on Services of the Information Society and Electronic Commerce. Likewise, the User undertakes not to use the service to obtain data, the possession of which may contravene the provisions of Organic Law 15/1999, of 13 December, on Personal Data Protection, and its Regulations, or in Law 34/2002, of 11 July, on Services of the Information Society and Electronic Commerce.

Failure to comply with these conditions will result in the immediate withdrawal of the service and any registered domain name which breaches said conditions may be officially cancelled by Red.es.

The IP address used to perform the query is not authorised or has exceeded the established limit for queries. To request access to the service, complete the form located at <https://sede.red.gob.es/sede/whois>, where you may also consult the service conditions.
